What is SLIP?

At Dhiverse, we provide short term educational programmes around relationships and sex which are age and ability appropriate, and delivered in an informal, creative, and accessible way. 'SLIP' is one of these programmes. SLIP stands for 'Sex, the Law, the Internet and Porn' i.e., the topics covered in the programme. It is for young people aged 9-24 who have engaged in risky or potentially harmful behaviours and are unaware of the possible consequences and impact of their behaviours.

The programme aims to educate and inform participants so that they understand the impact of the behaviours and attitudes they are displaying towards relationships and sex. We want young people to feel empowered to make informed choices and decisions, to form positive beliefs, values, and attitudes and to have improved self-confidence and self-esteem. The post holder will deliver the pre-designed workshops that make up the SLIP programme, either in a group setting or 1-1 session.

SLIP is delivered over 7 or 8 weekly sessions to small groups and to some individuals. Please visit <https://www.dhiverse.org.uk/our-services/slip-sex-law-internet-and-pornography/> for more information about SLIP.
